

Injured Spouse Instructions

This information applies only to taxes intercepted by the Office of State Debt Collection (OSDC)

If you filed a joint return and you had your state tax refund taken by the OSDC for a debt that your spouse individually owes, you may claim your part of a state tax refund if BOTH of the following apply:

- 1. You received and reported income, such as wages, taxable interest, etc., on the joint return; and
- 2. You had Utah income tax withheld from your wages.

The OSDC requires the following information from you to apply for injured spouse relief. If BOTH of the above conditions apply and you want your share of the overpayment shown on the joint return refunded, you should:

- Provide your Income and Utah Withholding information in the table below (amounts must tie to your tax returns)

	Combined Total	Injured Spouse	Debtor
Income
Utah Withholding

- attach copies of your complete federal and state tax returns
- attach copies of W-2, 1099 and other forms showing all Utah withholding amounts
- include a copy of the letter from OSDC that informed you that your tax refund was intercepted
- mail all of this information to:
